Hi Kate!

How are you? I miss you and London so much! Now, I moved to Phuket with my family because my dad got a new job at a hotel there, and I have to go to new school too. It is a small school and very close to my house. At the school, there is only one building and one swimming pool. In my class, there are 15 students. We like to play many sports, such as football, badminton, and volleyball together after classes. Also, I have a new close friend, and her name is Laura. She lives next door to my house, and sometimes we walk home together. At weekends, we love to go to the swimming pool at school together. I want you to be here with me, and get to know her. She is funny and smart. You will love her! Maybe when you visit me here, we can go swimming together. Please come and visit me this summer.

Love,
June
